Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 26, 2021, the United States (U.S.) Food and Drug Administration approved MYFEMBREE[®] (relugolix 40 mg, estradiol 1 mg, and norethindrone acetate 0.5 mg), indicated for the management of heavy menstrual bleeding associated with uterine fibroids in pre-menopausal women. Myovant expects MYFEMBREE to be available in June 2021. The wholesale acquisition cost for MYFEMBREE in the United States will be $974.54 for a bottle containing twenty-eight (28) tablets.

Forward-Looking Statements

The statements above regarding Myovant's expectation that MYFEMBREE will become available in June 2021 and that the wholesale acquisition cost for MYFEMBREE in the United States will be $974.54 for a bottle containing twenty-eight (28) tablets are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and beliefs and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors known and unknown that could cause actual results and the timing of certain events to differ materially from future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to: unforeseen circumstances or other disruptions to normal business operations arising from or related to the COVID-19 pandemic; Myovant's ability to sustain a commercial field organization and distribution network; and Myovant's reliance on third parties for the manufacture of MYFEMBREE; Myovant cannot assure you that the events and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements will be achieved or occur and actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof, and, except as required by law, Myovant undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of such statements.
